The Prez Sez

By Gary Hawley, President

Have you noticed the weather changes? Sunrise is later and sunset is earlier. Cooler days and much cooler nights. Last week it got down to 41 degrees during the night. I have also noticed birds are starting to gather in flocks. Winter is not far away. The good side of this is that it is more comfortable for prospecting. A light jacket in the morning and shirt sleeve temperatures in the afternoon. What more could one ask?

Our August club meeting was held upstairs at the Clements Center. The Center told me about repairs being done on their elevator and they were having a large meeting that required our usual meeting room. I am sorry for any inconvenience caused to any member. The Clements Center has been very cooperative with our club and I was sure we could extend this courtesy without much controversy.

Jeff Mosteller has a letter from Wheatridge that indicates the Clear Creek Greenway is NOT an area for any type of prospecting due to Wheatridge regulations in place at this time.

Sue Lemieux explained why the Central City mining tour was cancelled. She may attempt to reschedule later, if the tour bus is properly repaired. Remember to always sign up for offered outings so if something occurs you can be notified of any changes.

Donna Mosteller and Sue Lemieux are making plans for a GPR Cookbook. They have been talking about design contests, and all sorts of things. Stay tuned for this one.

Congratulations to Bill Duncanson and Peg Brozek on locating the GPR Cache! The target spent nearly a year buried near the parking lot at Harriman Lake Park at South Kipling and West Quincy. Bill and Peg did an excellent job of reading the clues and finally locating the

VP's Corner

By Jeff Mosteller, Vice President

Greetings,

There is something of great importance I want to bring to your attention.

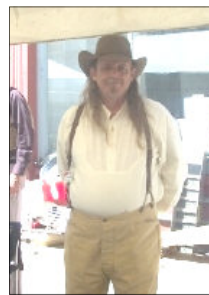

BUYER BEWARE !!!!

It sadly came to our attention that during the meeting last month that one of our members had made a spectacular purchase of Silver Morgan Dollars that looked like about 10,000 worth of material. The member brought this material to the big coin show that went on last month to get them graded and quickly found out he had about a dollars worth of old bomb casings that were counterfitted into Silver Morgans. Some sources say that these coins originated out of The far east and first appeared after last years big coin show in Denver. These coins are beautiful and hard to spot as fakes. According to Rod Haenni of the Arapaho Coin Shop in Littleton who advertises in our news letter you can spot them in the following ways, get a real silver dollar and spin it on a table and wait for it to drop, listen to it's sound. Next do that with the coin you are looking at, if the sound doesn't match there is something wrong. Also carry a magnet with you these things are magnetic BIG give away. I did some research on the net for these things and found out there are other fakes popping up and these coins are made with Silver and the only way you can catch them is by weight, these particular coins are, get this TO HEAVY. Minted Silver 1 oz coins should be 31.1 grams - 1.0 oz, 40.60 mm in Diameter and 2.96 mm in thickness.

(I kinda wish I could get a hold of the silver fakes, they still have a melt value and Silver is around $13.00 an ounce right now.)

OTHER NEWS:

We have 3 shows pending all are quick 1 day each events none of them are confirmed and I'll have more cache. I'm sure Bill will remember the final clue: "All that glitters is not gold." Be sure to ask him what that clue referred to.

Thanks to Kathy Hawley for listening to me prepare the clues and checking them out to confirm that each clue was accurate and actually lead to the cache. Kathy and I are finding we miss checking the cache location to make sure it was in place until found by Bill and Peg. It was the enthusiasm of the club members that made this hunt memorable. The next cache hunt is scheduled to begin in January so, Bill and Peg; I am anticipating your first clue!

Jeff has three panning demos in the works and will need volunteers. Please sign up for the ones you can help with.

The club picnic and prospecting outing will be September 23, 10:00-4:00, at Tymkovich. The club will supply hamburgers and hot dogs, buns, condiments, plastic ware and paper plates. Each member is asked to bring a side dish for yourself and 1 or 2 others. Bring your prospecting equipment as we will be along Clear Creek and there is gold in that area. We will have more information at the meeting.

Joe Shubert advises it is time to prepare for club elections. He will present the time table and procedure for this event at the October meeting.

Until next time: May the gold in your pan be worth the effort you put into finding it.

GPR Genl Mtg Notes Clements Center
Lakewood, CO 16 August 2006
Recorder: Paul Nagy

7:00 Meeting called to order by President Gary Hawley. Pledge of Allegiance led by Leroy Lamgo, U.S. Army (Ret.).

7:01 Prez Hawley extends congratulations to members Larry and Shirley Weilnau for great performances at the annual State Gold Panning Championships at Breckenridge, CO. Both won several titles (again) and placed in several other categories. Also, a third place medal to Aaron Ingalls, a newer member of the club, who demonstrates that you can advance yourself quickly in anything if you apply yourself to it. These people are all true assets to the club. Audience gives a hearty round of applause.

7:05 VP's report by Jeff Mosteller. Jeff showed classic 8 x 11 photos taken at a recent panning demo. Club stalwarts Leroy Lamgo and Ed Finney stood out in their period finery. A reminder that Wheatridge regs prohibit "mining" along the Clear Creek greenway. This includes mere panning and everything else. A rundown of upcoming panning demos. A list of tongue-in-cheek household hints.

7:13 Prez Hawley welcomes guests, including: John Sullivan, Leon Sullivan, Jeff McClendon, Norm Te Slau, Rusty Morse, Joe Roorda, Jack Engel, Tyler Schoenke, and Randy Archer. Also, at Breckenridge, government officials asked for club input regarding hobby prospecting.

7:19 Events coordinator, Sue Lemieux explains that the Central City tour was cancelled because the tour bus broke down. All those who signed up were contacted by Sue as soon as she got the word. That is why you should sign up or contact Sue in advance for any event. Sue outlined the plans for the annual club picnic at Tymkovich Meats at 70th and Washington Sts. on 23 September.

7:23 Hank Innerfeld mentioned the upcoming World Money Show in town. Attend and get your coins appraised by the Denver Coin Club.

7:25 Joe Shubert, on behalf of his wife and daughter, thanks everyone who contributed and sponsored them for the recent Cancer Walk benefit.

7:27 Shirley Weilnau asks the question of the month and later awards drawing tickets to the winners.

7:31 Recess.

7:50 Prez Hawley announces that the Hidden Cache has been found! Bloodhound-goldhounds Bill Duncanson and Peg Brozek sniffed through the maze of clues and came up with the cache in Harriman Park. Hawley explained each of the clues and was applauded for the creativity that went into composing them. Much respect was rendered to Bill and Peg for their sleuthing.

8:11 Joe Johnston announces winners of the finds-of-the-month competition.

8:22 Prize drawings, then adjourn meeting.

information about them at the meeting.

A big thank you to the 3 volunteer members that showed up in Central City last Saturday 9/02, we froze our backsides off and a total of 20 people got in the tubs. I had 6 People show up on Sunday and the weather was great we got 124 people to pan in the tubs. I know you all are getting tired so are we. The year is about to close for the demos, I have 3 shows left, please help us get through them.

BIGGIE:
Want to be on TV ? We could use a few extras in the creek on Friday Sept 29 about 11:00 in the morning. CH 9's Nick Carter is going to do a "Package Shoot" on the history of Gold Prospecting in Colorado featuring "US" The Gold Prospectors of the Rockies. This will be a program shoot and not a "remote broadcast" If your interested in being a celebrity and get your mug on TV see me at the meeting for further details. No costumes required.

The water will be getting cold soon, please be mindful when your out there, be safe.
