CLEANING YOUR GOLD

by Allen Mershon Transcribed by Paul Nagy

At the end of a day on the "diggin's" you've got ounces or pounds of pan or sluice concentrates. Now you carefully pan out the yellow metal you've worked so hard to get. But no matter how careful you are, there are obvious impurities in your pay-off. Any more panning would get rid of the impurities, but also a lot of gold, too. Cleaning your gold into a marketable condition while saving all possible gold is something you should learn to do, and there is not a better teacher on the subject than Allen Mershon.

Allen works for a local gold placer company and tends many sluices in the Denver Metro area. Part of his job is to clean and size the gold for sale. He is an active club member, a board member, and as the club program chair, he has arranged many fine presentations for us. At the September club meeting, he himself was the show.

A good first step in gold cleaning is to dry and size-classify the gold. For drying, heat the gold in a stainless steel pan. But do this only in a well-ventilated area! There may be toxic material present which can vaporize and become extremely dangerous! If you don't have a lot to clean and you're not in a hurry, you can use a gold pan or cookie sheet and dry it outdoors or use a blow dryer indoors.

After the material is dry, the next step is to classify (screen) the gold. The number of size-fractions to use depends on the size range of your gold. Locally, two sizes are enough Call one "coarse" and the other "fine." The divide between the two is 40 mesh. Note that "fine" refers to particle size, NOT purity. But as a matter of fact, the finer the gold, the purer it will be. That is because as the gold in a running stream breaks down into ever smaller particles, more of the contained impurities are exposed to the environment and oxidize or otherwise disappear. Lo-

The Prez Sez

By Gary Hawley, President

Winter weather is just around the corner so now is the time to do some prospecting and gather a bucket of concentrates to work on when the snow arrives.

We had a good turn out for the club picnic at Tymkovich. It was a bit cool when we started but good food and fellowship warmed things up for an afternoon of prospecting. There were several new members who received an abundance of "how to" information on panning. I believe everyone found some colors and had a good time.

Jeff Mosteller shared his gold history knowledge and prospecting expertise with Nick Carter from Channel 9. Several pieces of prospecting equipment were on display and well photographed for a program Nick is putting together. Thanks to all who

VP's Corner

By Jeff Mosteller, Vice President

Greetings,

This month I'll be short. Last Saturday we had our annual Panning Demo in Colorado Springs for Rock Ledge Ranch. This is the Colorado Springs Pumpkin Harvest for the children of the springs. Over the last 2 years the festival gate count has been around 2000 to 2500 and our booth usually sees around 250 to 280 people and kids. This year things were different. The Gate recorded over 4000 people in the park (a park record), we had a count at the end of the day of 479 people and kids through the booth in about 5 hours.

We broke it down. The lines were 20 deep most of the day. Each tub ran 23 attended and allowed themselves to be part of the show. Jeff will let us know when this will be aired and he has asked for a video of the program for showing at a club meeting.

Thanks to the members who were able to attend the panning demo for Gilpin County. We were able to meet representatives of the Fire and Rescue Department, Gilpin County Library, Gilpin Historic Society, retail outlets and numerous citizens of Gilpin County. This was one of those venues that introduced our hobby to some important county persons.

Jeff still has a couple more demos to finish out the year. Please help when you can.

Allen Mershon did an excellent job with his presentation on "Cleaning your gold." If you have a question about gold Allen is the one to ask.

At our October meeting Jeff, Allen and I will demonstrate the micro-slucice, the blue bowl, the Gold Magic wheel and maybe some other pieces of prospecting equipment.

Donna Mosteller and Sue Lemieux are working on a club cookbook. All members are asked to "give a recipe to the cause" ('cause we all like to eat). Breads, cookies, snacks, beans, pies and meat recipes...everything will be accepted. Donna and Sue will determine which recipes will be in the cookbook and they will have more information on that as they get organized.

Cindy Douthard is moving in January and Mary Ann McCrea has volunteered to take over the membership table. Rick Miska needs someone to assume the newsletter editor position in January. If you can help, please contact Rick.

Joe Shubert will have some election business to talk about at the October meeting. Yes, it is that time again. This is your opportunity to help direct the GPR. Get your name on the ballot and run for office.

Kathy Hawley has advised me it is time to go "prospecting" for more drawing nuggets. She also has special plans for the election night nuggets to be presented at the November meeting! I know you will want to attend that meeting, for sure!

Until next time: May the gold in your pan be worth the effort you put into finding it.

cally, the gold in Clear Creek has an average purity of 960 (parts per thousand), Platte River gold 920, and Buena Vista (Arkansas River) 800. As you might expect, you can find some nuggets at Buena Vista, but you will not find anything larger than 1/8th inch in Clear Creek. Commercial screens are good but expensive. A cheaper alternative are hobby-store screens. Window screens are around 17 mesh.

When the gold has been size classified, you can more easily remove the impurities. A sniffer bottle, used dry, is useful. You can also put the gold on a sheet of paper or glass and gently blow off the impurities. Or copy the dope dealers from the TV cop shows and use a glass plate and a razor blade. Your last move is to use a magnet. Always "hover" the magnet above the sample. Always clean gold over a smooth surface or container to catch spills.

To estimate the purity of gold, check the color against gold jewelry of known purity. Gold dealers typically discount by 25%. Your yield will be something like: daily spot price -20% X 31.1 X the gram weight of your gold. (31.1 is the approximate grams per troy oz.) There may be a bonus for -20 mesh gold. Buy or borrow a scale to check weights before you deal. Or have a standard weight to check the dealer's scale. Refiners want a minimum of 10 oz Au. Or you can simply hoard your gold for the day when the world economy collapses, and you will be royalty! But in any case clean your gold so that your friends won't look at it and say "Hey, what's that stuff in your gold!"

October Speaker Info

The speaker this month is YOU!!!!

Please bring your prospecting equipment and related items to set up at the meeting for everybody to see.

This is a show and tell type of meeting. Each person will talk about the item that they brought, and then answer questions regarding that item.

If your item is equipment, it does not matter whether its factory built or something that you made.

This will be a lot of fun if everybody participates.

Hope to see you there!!!!!!!!!!!!

Letter to club from Alaina Marshall

Hello,

I am contacting you because I am selling a lifetime LDMA membership. I was wondering if you would mention this to your chapter to see if anyone is interested in purchasing it.

The original value of the membership is $5000, currently sold for $3750. There is a $50 transfer fee. Only the LDMA portion of the membership is transferable. A GPAA Lifetime Membership must be established by the assuming member at the cost of $250. (This can be paid at the time of the transfer or in $30 monthly increments). If the assuming member is already a Gold Life Member the $250 is waived.

There are yearly maintenance dues of $120. Membership is based on the review and approval of the LDMA board, acceptance is not guaranteed.

Once all transfer information is complete and submitted to LDMA it takes about 30 days to process the transfer. Once the transfer is approved the assuming member will receive, in the mail, a membership packet.

All members may visit any designated LDMA prospecting camp at any time. Members also receive a lifetime subscription to Gold Prospectors Magazine. You will receive permits and membership cards along with newsletters.

www.goldprospectors.org

The price is negotiable. I am currently accepting offers. Questions are welcome.

Thank you.

7:14 Meeting called to order by President Gary Hawley. Pledge of Allegiance led by Bill Duncanson.

7:15 Discussion of metal prices. Introduction of guests: Steven Barritt, Joe and Nancy Carter, Marc Prinz, Richard Valverde, and Jim Werner. Welcome to all! Most heard of the club through the Internet.

7:20 Prez Hawley reminds that elections for club office are approaching. He extends an invitation to get involved and run for office. You will help yourself while you help the club. We will help you.

7:22 V.P.'s report by Jeff Mosteller. Beware of panning or any digging in Boulder County. You may be fined! However, "casual use" prospecting is permitted on federal land. Be sure you have an up to date land-use map and that you are on federal ground. Also, beware of counterfeit collector's coins. There are many around. Recently a club member found a cache of coins in a building under demolition. All were fake. Jeff passed one around for inspection. This one was magnetic and when dropped did not "ring true." But some fakes are more convincing than this, so always beware. Finally, he gave the upcoming panning demonstration schedule. Next is the Gilpin County Fair. We are doing this gratis in appreciation for Gilpin County's support of us. The Rock Ledge Ranch demo is after that. We had a photo op shoot with Channel 4, hosted by celeb Nick Carter. We have another scheduled for Sept 29 at 9:00 AM at the gas station on route 119 for those who would like to try to get on TV.

7:37 Larry Weilnau asked the question of the month and later awarded drawing tickets to correct answers.

I want to personally thank the following people for accomplishing the impossible. My Wife Donna Mosteller and of course myself. Chuck and Sharon Cown. Sue Lemieux. Rob Deshambault and the everlasting "Sarge" Leroy these 7 dedicated people worked themselves silly in the panning tubs and should be applauded for their efforts.

THANK YOU

We have 1 more demo this year and it is predicated on what the weather does, I will have directions to the demo at the meeting. The demo will be in the Castle Rock area on Saturday the 21st from 1:00pm to 4:00 pm at the "Grange" in a subdivision called "The Meadows".

Next month I will start digging through the 3 inch deep pile of records on this years demos and put the full stats together for the membership body to see. We had a long season, doing demos over 7 months this year. No wonder every body is tired.

Next year we are working on setting up a streamlined calendar of events that are the cream of the crop so to speak. Were going to try not to go 7 or 8 months and burn everybody out.

Again, Thank you ALL very much for your efforts to support the club.

Every body that doesn't come out and help in the demos should remember that the income that is generated by the booth helps to buy the Gold that everybody wants to win in the Drawings and goes to support the club in all it's different aspects and activities.

Be careful out there,
